THE HOLY HOUR:

“Could you not watch with me one hour?”

Fulton Sheen deserves credit as the great prophet of the Holy Hour – a sustained, uninterrupted hour of prayer in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Many of Sheen's colleagues confirmed that, his whole life long, he remained faithful to this practice. The Holy Hour is now a staple spiritual discipline in most seminaries and in an increasing number of rectories and parishes around the country. What Sheen was intuiting about the importance of the Holy Hour is that it is about cultivating our relationship with Jesus. He once wrote, “Even when it seemed so unprofitable and lacking in spiritual intimacy, I still had the sensation of being at least like a dog at the master's door, ready in case he called me.”
