Book Study:

If you would like to jump start your new year spiritually, you may find inspiration and support through our book study group as we take a spiritual journey with Walter J. Ciszek through the book “With God in Russia.”

This is the classic memoir by American-born Jesuit priest who survived fifteen years of imprisonment in the Soviet Union during the height of the Cold War. A great story of spirit and courage.

First meeting Jan 17. Every Tuesday morning from 10:30am to 12:00pm.

For our first meeting please read the Introduction chapter.

Healing the Canaanite woman:

The Gentile woman who wanted a miracle from Jesus shows her strong and persistent faith as she debates with Jesus. Jesus seems to enjoy the debate, testing her faith to see if she would give up. When she is persistent, Jesus praises her for her faith and heals her daughter. The passage teaches us that we should never give up when we pray. We must pray with persistence and faith. If God wishes to answer our prayer in a different manner, we will recognize it.

What can we learn from this passage?

Pyrohy Schedule:

January 21st
February 18th

Prayer:

Lord, the Canaanite woman and I are in the same boat. She begged and I am begging. You know the desires of my heart. I know that you want to receive these desires like loving parents receive the desires of their child. Hear and answer my prayer.

Amen!

What prayer request do you need to be persistent about?
