Meditation #11:

The Eucharist also reminds us that we are not isolated individuals, but one body. As the people in the desert gathered the manna that fell from heaven and shared it in their families, so Jesus, the Bread come down from Heaven, calls us together to receive him and to share him with one another. The Eucharist is not a sacrament “for me”; it is the sacrament of the many, who form one body, God’s holy and faithful people.

THANK YOU:

A message from Pope Francis on the occasion of the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. The day was established by Pope Francis in January 2021 to emphasize the pastoral care of the elderly, their mission of evangelization and prayer, and their intergenerational relationship with young people. It is held on the fourth Sunday of July, near the feast of Sts. Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus. The next World Day for Grandparents and Elderly is July 23, 2023.

The message encourages everyone to reflect on the meeting between Mary and Elizabeth as it points us towards the future that God is opening up before us. It also invites everyone to make a concrete gesture that would include grandparents and the elderly. Let us not abandon them. Their presence in families and communities is a precious one, for it reminds us that we share the same heritage and are part of a people committed to preserving its roots. From the elderly we received the gift of belonging to God's holy people. The Church, as well as society, needs them, for they entrust to the present the past that is needed to build the future. Let us honor them, neither depriving ourselves of their company nor depriving them of ours. May we never allow the elderly to be cast aside!
