A PRAYER FOR PEACE IN UKRAINE:

Heavenly Father, Your Son taught us “Blessed are the Peacemakers for they shall be called Children of God.” At this hour, we fervently pray that Your Holy Spirit may inspire an end to the violent confrontation and killing in Ukraine. May they restore tranquility to their nation and restore human rights, democratic principles, and religious liberty to their troubled land. God, our Father, we beseech you to comfort the suffering, heal the wounded and accept the souls of the departed into Your Heavenly Kingdom. And may the Most Holy Mother of God, extend her Blessed Mantle of Protection over Ukraine. And may each of us always live our lives as instruments of Your Peace. Amen

Church history...

The Beginnings of Christianity in Kyivan Rus’... It should also be noted that in the south of present-day Ukraine there were a number of eparchies whose representatives were recorded as members of the Ecumenical Councils in the first millennium. For example, the Bishop of Bosphorus participated in the First Council of Nicaea in 325, and in 691-692, Bishop Gregory of Dory (Crimea) participated in the Council of Trullo.

There us evidence that there lived a people known as Rhosses in the same southern Ukrainian region, which was unlikely to have a direct relationship to Rus and was not Slavic. However, Byzantine Patriarch Photrius (858-867) sent them a bishop, later they probably adopted Christianity. Another tradition of the same period tells about the baptism of Prince Askold (882) under the Patriarch of Constantinople Photius, but today it is not possible to say whether it is true. At the same time, in the lands adjacent to Rus’, Sts Cyril and Methodius, Equal to the Apostles, started their missionary activities. In about 860, on the road to Khazaria St. Cyril visited Crimea, where he found the relics of the martyred Pope St. Clement I (88-99), who was exiled to these then-outlying districts of the Roman Empire in the late 1st century A.D.

In 864, at the invitation of Prince Rastislav of Great Moravia, Cyril and Methodius began in that state a Christian Mission extending into the territory of present day Slovakia, Czechia, Hungary, Poland and Ukraine.
